 Strode's
College

Continuing Education

Every year over 2,000 adults join courses at Strode's College. It is a great way to develop existing or new interests and to meet like minded people. You can also work towards qualifications that will improve your life prospects. The College offers over 200 different courses for adults in both the day and evening. Many of the evening courses take place at the College's historic main site in Egham. For more information please see the Continuing Education prospectus, which is available on www.strodes.ac.uk, from the College reception or by calling 01784 228676.
