PROLIFIC AND OTHER PRIORITY OFFENDERS (PPO)

BASELINE: ... TARGET: ... by 2011 (list the number of reduced offences)

LEAD OFFICER: Sergeant Jon Hillard 669@surrey.pnn.police.uk

Action No. & Lead	Actions	Due by	INPUT Resources / action needed to carry this out Financial, Material or Human (include key dates / milestones)	OUTPUT What did you do? What activity took place?	RAG	If red or amber, state how you are addressing these issues
DESIRED OUTCOME: To reduce the amount of offending by the 2010 PPO cohort by ... compared to their offending the previous year by 2011.
TASK:
1 Victoria Jeffries	To enable people who have been identified as PPOs to gain advice on information in relation to employment, training and education		Those subject to statutory supervision via Probation to have access to Education, Training and Employment provision through the IOM team.

3 Jon Hillard	To increase the take up of drug testing for those PPOs who are not subject to statutory supervision.		Officer time to develop a proposal to fund the initiative. To explore opportunities for funding with other borough councils	August: Voluntary drugs' testing is now part of the "culture" when dealing with non Statutory PPO's. Funding has been made available from the DIP to cover all 3 Boroughs serviced by the Staines PPO Team. A number of useful results have been obtained from the testing - some confirming a dependency on Class A drugs and some helping to evidence a continued abstinence.
4. Jon Hillard	To divert offenders from re-offending and assist in rehabilitation		To acquire access to the Leisure Centre for specific PPO's to assist with their health and improve confidence / well-being.	August: Staines PPO Team are very grateful for the Leisure Centre passes. Up to this time, none of the Spelthorne PPO's have displayed the correct attitude and sustained crime free periods to allow them to benefit from the passes. However, two PPO's have been made aware that the passes are available should they meet the qualifying criteria. It is hoped that the opportunity to utilise the gym passes will provide the requisite motivation to continue to change their lives.
