Saturday 13 June, 11.15am-5pm Shepperton Village Fair

Now in its 52nd year, the Shepperton Village Fair is once again set to bring the whole community together for one of the best days of the summer. With free entry and something for absolutely everyone, it really is a day not to be missed.

The fun kicks off with the Grand Procession, as local schools and nurseries wind their way through the village in spectacular costumes, filling the High Street with colour and noise. From there, the main arena takes over with a packed programme of entertainment. The BMX bike display returns this year, with riders pulling off jaw-dropping tricks that have the crowd gasping. The ever-popular alpacas will be making their appearance too -- always a favourite with children and adults alike. This year we are adding Tom's Talking Reptiles. Oh, and don't forget the ever-popular raft race!
